OA Opportunities

The OA offers amazing opportunities.

You can look anywhere in the Wolf's Tale and find information about amazing events the OA has to offer. Lodge weekends, NLS's, Conclave, NOAC, Trail Crew, Northern Tier and more. All these programs are amazing, and among some of the best programs offered to scouts and scouters. Every member should take advantage of some of these events, and go experience them for themselves.

Aside from all those activities that the OA offers, it also offers another amazing opportunity for youth under the age of 21. This is the opportunity to serve the OA in a leadership role. It is unique, because this is the only organization that is run by youth under the age of 21. So are you in this category? If so I encourage you to get involved. I read the articles that are asking for younger members to step up, and look at the names on the directory, and see people who will all age out with me this coming year. There will be a lot of leadership positions opening up in the coming year, and few people to fill them. I look back at all the amazing things that you can do in a leadership role within the OA and often wonder what I would have done not serving on the Exec. board of our lodge. So, if you have an interest in doing something as a leader in the OA, get involved. Let the lodge leadership know. If you think you would like to do something like this, but are unsure, feel free to talk to any of the officers or chairmen to see how much they enjoy serving as a lodge leader. Remember it's your lodge, so get involved.

Section NE-4A Chief

TO CLAN OR NOT TO CLAN

"To Clan or not to Clan", that is the question. Shakespeare's Hamlet may not have been a Brother in the OA, but I'm sure if he were, he would have asked the question rather than questioning his own situation. Perhaps I have too much time on my hands, but I have been thinking about Clans a lot lately.

We are in a sad state with regard to Clans in our Lodge. There has been plenty of talk about re-energizing them (with little success so far) and there has been another line of thought that we should simply get rid of them altogether.

To describe Kittatinny's Clans, "Clans are a fun part of the Order of the Arrow. A clan is a group of Arrowmen that do fun activities together and fellowship with each other. The clans' ultimate purpose, however, is to support and strengthen the Lodge's program through service.

2004-2005 PROPOSED SLATE OF OFFICERS ANNOUNCED

The proposed slate of Lodge officers for the 2004-2005 year have been announced. The slate is as follows:

- Chief - Ryan Gebely
- Vice Chief 1 - Jeremy Fisher
- Vice Chief 2 - Jonathan Fritz
- Secretary - Dan Althouse
- Treasurer - Richie Tylka

If you or someone you know would like to run in opposition to the proposed slate, the following process, outlined in the Lodge Bylaws, Article 5 Section C, should be followed.

"The nominating committee will present a slate of officers consisting of Chief, (2) two Vice-Chiefs (as a cluster), Secretary, and Treasurer. The slate of officers will be presented at the April general membership meeting, (normally April) and published in the lodge newsletter prior to the following general membership meeting (normally May/June). Additional nominations may be received by petition of fifteen (15) active members, in writing. The petition may list (1) chief, (2) vice-chiefs (as a cluster), and/or (1) secretary, and/or (1) treasurer. The petition must be addressed to the Lodge Secretary, c/o Kittatinny Lodge #5, Order of the Arrow, at the Council Service Center. Nominations shall close at the end of the business day fifteen days prior to the election meeting. There shall be no nominations from the floor at the election meeting."

Lodge Officer Petition forms are available on the Kittatinny Lodge 5 web site under: Communications, Lodge Forms or may be printed from: http://www.kittatinny5.org/documents/forms/frm_petition.htm

Good luck to the proposed slate and to others running in this year's Kittatinny Lodge 5 officer elections !

Brothers,

Spring is in the air, and summer is just around the corner. How to you plan on spending yours? If you don't have any big plans as of yet, I've got a really great idea that will let you have fun, and also get you in on even more great Kittatinny stuff. It's called summer camp!

My summer camp experiences can be summed up in one word: fun! I worked aquatics from 1999-2001 and it was awesome. Teaching merit badges, campfires, games, all-nighters, friends, the feeling of accomplishment, and lodge functions. Yes, lodge functions. Summer camp isn't entirely based only on basic BSA, the OA plays a huge part in it.

Wednesdays are even completely dedicated to the OA, as it is the day we have our call-outs and brotherhood ceremonies. Our lodge has strived to make our call-outs as magnificent as they are now, and we have even been told that it may even be the best call-out ceremony in the country.

Personally, I think it very well could be, and being able to perform in it was more of an honor than a privilege.

There are also lots of other OA related things going on at summer camp, but you need to ask to learn about them. Hunt down a past or present lodge member who served on staff and they can tell you all about it. It's definitely a great way to spend your summer, or even part of it, and it's definitely a great way to get your name out in the lodge.

I think we keep our unique clan system, but if clans are to survive, they must have a clearly defined set of goals and a purpose. Keeping the original intent of Clans in mind, I've put some thought into this, and here are some suggestions . . .

That each Clan should:

- 1) Elect a Clan Chieftain from within its own members at the same time as the new officers are elected and shall hold office for a term of one year. It shall be the responsibility of the Chieftain to see that the clan meets its annual goal and to report its accomplishments to the Executive Committee.
- 2) Conduct one community service project per year. This project should be selected by the clan members of the clan, be coordinated by the Chieftain under the guidance of the Clan Adviser, and should be significant.
- 3) Conduct a special camp service project each year, coordinated through the Lodge Service Committee and/or the Council Camping Committee, which will add to the over-all camping program.
- 4) Hold at least one off-season (ie: Winter) activity to keep its members active and in touch during off months.
- 5) Allow Clans to have an identity in the form of limited clothing items or memorabilia, which would need to be approved by the Executive Committee and would be sold through Kittatinny Inc.
- 6) Be officially recognized in the Lodge Bylaws, and that Clan Chieftains be given voting rights on the Executive Committee.

If nothing else, I hope this will stimulate some serious thought about Clans. They have great potential, but they need guidance and direction. I ask the present and future officers, clan chieftains and advisers to think about why they exist, and strive to make them fun, productive, and leadership builders.

FROM OUR DEPARTING SERVICE CHAIRMAN

This up coming year there will be a lot of brothers aging out. All of the positions they held will have to be filled. You, the youth, will need to step up and fill the voids left by these brothers. This is a great opportunity to get involved and continue to further serve Kittatinny 5. You can hold one of these positions, just talk to anyone on the Executive Committee (just about anyone listed with a phone number on the wolf's tale). Some of the aging out include Mike Miller, Bob Cook, Francis Flexer, Dave McKeown, and Ryan Fayewicz.

I have held the Service chairman position for the last two years. It was originally a co-chair position, but my co still has yet to show up to one weekend, so I took on the extra responsibility. I would like to see Service develop into a chairman and vice-chairman, or 1st co-chairman and 2nd co-chairman. So I will be looking for interested youth to pass my position on to. If interested or even if you just have questions on what I do, contact me. My number is on the back of the wolf's tale and I will be returning to camp for my 3rd summer on staff as Medic 1.

Finally, if you are at least 14 y/o and still don't know what you are going to do this summer... why not work at camp??? You get free delicious camp food, a tent to share with your best friend, and most important get away from your brothers and sisters for a summer. But the main reason I go back is because it's so much fun all the time.

News from the Committees

If you are a committee chairman, you can have your article printed right here in the Wolf's Tale. Submit articles or pictures for the July/August edition now. The deadline is May 18th!

BROTHERHOOD NEWS

Ordeal Members:

Its that time of year again, to start sealing your membership in the OA by taking your Brotherhood. If you couldn't make the April OA weekend, there's still plenty more chances to take your Brotherhood. There's the May weekend, summer camp, and the September OA weekends. Remember, if you want the lodge to earn Quality Lodge for the 15th year in a row, its up to you. Also if anyone has already taken their Brotherhood and would like to help out on the Brotherhood committee during the May weekend or any weekend and especially over the course of summer camp, please feel free to contact the committee chairman / advisor at brotherhood@kittatinny5.org.

Speaking of Summer Camp, we will again be doing the Brotherhood Hike. If you plan on taking your Brotherhood during the summer, please keep this in mind: You will need to show your receipt and current OA dues card to show that you have paid for the review when you take the it. We'll hope to see everyone at the weekends and summer camp.

ACTIVITIES NEWS

Hello again Brothers its time once more to talk about the weekends! We've got lots of activities planned out for you for this coming weekend, and there's also talks of a luau for the September weekend.

For the May weekend, we have planned a Carnival theme. As always, prizes will be given out during the Saturday Crackerbarrel for costumes, so bring your circus costumes! And, as usual there will be root beer floats for all, and they're free!

ORDEAL UPDATE

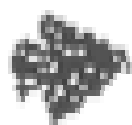

Brothers:

As the ordeal chairman I am responsible for making sure the ordeal runs smoothly for new candidates. I cannot do this alone. I need the help of elangomats, these membership with every aspect of the ordeal and serve as the closest link to the candidates.

We are now in the process of revamping the elangomat program. If you would like information about becoming an elangomat, or information on the Ordeal committee please contact me. My phone number is (610)775-0706. Thank you very much.

Richie Tylka
Ordeal Chairman

Reminder - Forms for Conclave and NOAC are Due!
If you are interested, please act quickly!

CP&E REPORT

Well everyone, another successful election season has come to a close. Congratulations to all scouts that have gotten elected in this year. I would like to thank all the district CP&E reps and their advisors for doing a tremendous job this year. If there are any troops who have suggestions or problems that you feel should be corrected for next year please call me at (610) 775-0398.

If there is anyone who is interested in doing unit elections next year please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thanks again to all CP&E representatives and their advisors for such a great year. Best of luck to all those who were recently voted in and I hope to see you at the OA weekends.

KITTATINNY INC.

Easter is over and you ask yourself the same question as you did in the years past: What do I do with the leftover Marshmallow Peeps? Kittatinny Inc. has the solution. During the May weekend, Kitty Inc. will be sponsoring a contest. This is a contest for the most creative use for the leftover Marshmallow Peeps. The judging will take place on Saturday night before the ceremonies. You supply the peeps and we will supply the prize, a Kitty Inc. gift certificate redeemable at all participating Kitty Inc. locations (using proper scouting guidelines when creating your entry).

PUBLICATIONS ANNOUNCEMENTS

Summer is a fun time of the year. Vacations and parties fill our time. It is, however, a great time to get involved in your lodge. Kittatinny 5 offers many different ways to become involved, many of which are talked about in other articles in this Wolf's Tale. But if you don't want to take action and join the Camp Staff or participate in ceremonies, Publications is a way to work behind the scenes.

There are many ways you can help out in Publications. You could become an editor, photographer, designer, web designer, or writer. If you have any interest in journalism or media this is a good way to gain valuable experience. Check out <http://www.kittatinny5.org> under the publications area to find out more about any of jobs that Publications has to offer. Only with the help of interested brothers will Publications come together and thrive.

Even if you do not wish to participate in the committee itself, we will still accept your article. Just send it to us and we will find a place for it. The more articles, the better. Articles can be sent through the website or by mail to me. (My address is on the back of this Wolf's Tale.)

FROM FLOW . . .

My den at HMSR has been getting many visitors lately as winter has been replaced by spring, and soon, the advent of summer. It's always an Exciting time for me as I witness the April and May Ordeal weekends.

It is fun to see all the faithful brothers of the lodge returning to camp to get the reservation ready for summer camp. It's a thrill to greet all my new brothers who enter the lodge as Ordeal members at the weekends.

There's also the excitement of the Conclave. What fun it is to ride along to another camp with all my brothers to meet new folks and have a great time. This year is particularly noteworthy because NOAC is just a few months away, too.

Spring is definitely an exciting (and busy) time for an old wolf like me. Imagine the fun it can be for you! I'll be there... will you?

Your Eyes and Ears,
Flow Rebmit

OA AT SUMMER CAMP

In addition to the ordeal weekends OA has many other programs that it runs throughout the year. One of these programs is the OA summer program at summer camp.

There are ceremonies, merit badges, the new camper program, and many other programs run by the OA at Hawk Mountain Scout Reservation's summer camp.

We can always use new ideas for ceremonies or other programs at camp. Also we always need dedicated people to work at the camp. If you are interested or have any ideas call me at (610) 775-0706 or call Hawk Mountain Council office.

LODGE ADVISER'S MINUTE

This is not my last article for the Wolf's Tale but it will be my last as Lodge Adviser. I cannot begin to express my gratitude to all those brothers who helped the lodge and me during the last two years. Kittatinny 5 has grown and prospered. Our reputation in the Section and the Region is well known and respected. I can only hope that all brothers will continue their dedication to the lodge and extend to George the same courtesies, advice, and help that was given to me. We all need to remember that the position of Lodge Adviser is not a one-person job. I have come to understand this fact very well. So please, when your assistance is needed, step forward and live up to the words in the obligation - "to seek to preserve a cheerful spirit even in the midst of irksome tasks and weighty responsibilities". These words can ease a heavy load for anyone, so as part of my final thought I quote the last line in our obligation - "to be unselfish in service and devotion to the welfare of others". If we all live up to this Kittatinny 5 will prosper forever.

Yours in Service,
Roger Mory
Allohakasin Nendauen

Just a Reminder!

Participation Awards can be picked up at the May Weekend!

FROM THE ASSOCIATE LODGE ADVISER

As I am writing this, the wind chill factor outside is somewhere around minus fifteen degrees, the driveway is still not shoveled, and the whole Northeast is staying behind closed doors. Brrrrrrrrrr. With conditions like this, it's not hard to let your mind wander a few months into the future, to Spring temperatures and the return of green! Renewal!

It won't be long until Camp comes alive again, and that's when and where we, as a Lodge, are back in business! Of course, the Lodge leaders are busy all winter long, planning and organizing for the April and May OA weekends, Conclave, training opportunities.... Lodge business doesn't give us the luxury of hibernation. Chiefs are setting goals and committees are gearing up. It's all adding up to being a great year in Kittatinny 5!

Renewal is a word that you might consider adopting as your personal theme for this OA year: renewal of your commitment to the Lodge; renewal of your dedication to the principles of Scouting and the Order; renewal of your devotion to helping do the work that needs to be done, during the OA weekends, on the Lodge committees, and in the Clans.

As we gear up for Spring, why not renew the spirit that first brought you to the Order of the Arrow that weekend you took your Ordeal. Sign up for the April and May weekends. Get excited about the Lodge. Take your Brotherhood Review. Pick a committee and lend a hand. Always wanted to participate in a ceremony? Do it! It's your Lodge, and the rewards and friendships are worth all the time and effort. Have you forgotten? If so, get renewed!

George Shoop
Associate Lodge Adviser

Editor's Note: Our apologies to George for the delay in publishing this article. We had to hold it for this issue due to space limitations. It was originally written in bitter cold February.

GEBELY'S GROOVE

Greetings my fellow brothers. I would like to take this time to thank everyone for a fun-filled glorious weekend and say a job well done on the work that we all did. I am wholeheartedly looking forward to this coming weekend to keep things rolling. With a successful 80's cracker barrel in April hopefully our May Carnival theme will be able to top it. On a more serious note I would like to issue a vigil candidate selection committee update. The committee met in March after the Executive meeting and selected this year's candidates. If there are any further question about this years procedures please forward your questions to myself, Bob Cook, Roger Mory, or Sally Trump. We would be more than happy to listen to any concerns.

Looking into the future, I would like to invite any and all with ideas for any events, features, and exciting things for conclave 2006 at Hawk Mountain Scout Reservation. Even though it seems far away we soon need to start planning. I encourage any brother to voice ideas for the shows and training cells to myself, Bob Cook, or even our own NE-4A Section Chief Michael Miller who will be readily available for your ideas at the May weekend and at this years conclave.

This year I sadly and deeply regret to inform all our brothers that there will not be an Annual Lodge Banquet. But why not! That is question at hand! The reasons for this decision were due to lack of facilities due to National Camping School, summer camp, along with various other activities scheduled such as NOAC and Conclave. We are planning to schedule the 2005 picnic now so that we will not run into this problem in the future. Thank you for you understanding and cooperation I apologize for any inconveniencies or disappointments this may have caused. Hope to see you all at this upcoming weekend and at Conclave!

Most indubitably yours,
Ryan Gebely, Vice Chief of Activities
Tscholentit Wewin (a. k. a. "Conclave Boy")
