Announcing Online Membership Status

At the January Executive meeting, Membership Committee adviser Joe Pietruszynski announced that a collaboration of the Membership and Web Committees has resulted in a new interactive service available to all lodge members: Online Membership Status checking.

A link on the Membership Committee page allows you to enter your Lodge ID number (the four-digit number found on your membership card) and the resulting page will return your dues status, your Brotherhood eligibility status, if you are an adult with over two years since you took your Ordeal, dates you took your Ordeal, Brotherhood, or Vigil, and if we have recorded payment towards any lodge activities for the current year. Activity payments will only appear if dues are current.

The Membership Committee has always collected and maintained this information, but it was only available to them since the records were stored in a single computer file. "We wanted that information to be of service to members themselves," stated Pietruszynski. "Members can now save a call to find out if they are paid up". The online lookup file will be updated regularly, but there may be small delays from the time you turn in payments until they appear in the lookup file. Currently, the file is being updated about 2-3 times a month.

Another link on the Membership Committee page allows users to update their contact information. Once you joined the OA and gave us your contact information, we had no way of knowing if you moved, changed phone numbers, or changed units. This feature now gives you the ability to let us know about these types of changes and helps keep the lodge records more accurate, and Wolf's Tale coming to you.

This collaboration marks the first use of interactive services on our web site. Future plans are to give members access to their participation history as well. Members will be able to see which OA service weekends and other events they participated in over the past years. Troop OA Reps may be able to use this information to encourage Arrowmen who have not been very active in the Lodge to come back and try out an OA Weekend. To check out your status, point your browser to www.kittatinny5.org, and using the menu go to "General Information", "Committees", then click the link on the Membership committee. For faster access, you can go directly to www.kittatinny5.org/committees/membership and click on the link "Lookup Your Membership Status." We've put a link on the main page too.

Time For Recognition

In this edition of Wolf's Tale you'll find a lot about nominating people for things: Founder's Award, Camp Spirit Award, Service Award, and recommendations for the Vigil Honor. Take a moment to consider your Brothers you work with at Summer Camp, at OA Weekends, in your district, or in your unit. Who among them are worthy of being noticed for their efforts? Others elected you into the OA for what they saw in you. Are you watching for other's good works as well?

Chief's Corner

Ryan Gebely
Tschwolentit Wewin
Lodge Chief

Ryan Gebely

Once again it is snowing in Southern California just as it was in my last article in the previous edition of Wolf's Tale. I am writing to you today to offer you a once in a lifetime opportunity! Become part of a what is going to be one of the most spectacular events in our lodge's history! Be part of the 2006 Section NE-4A Conclave!

During the up coming weekends we will announce the chairmen who will in charge of the committees and we will be looking for valuable members to make this great event happen. There will be an ad-hoc committee established (ad-hoc - a temporary committee established for a specific purpose i.e. Conclave) to plan and run Conclave when it is hosted at HMSR in 2006.

What is Conclave you say? Well I'm glad you asked! It is a gathering of all the lodges in the section for a weekend of fun, food, and fellowship. There are competitions, feasts, ceremonies, and training cells in which Kittatinny 5 will have the pleasure and honor of hosting. If you are interested in helping please feel free to email me or call any time with any questions. You can find my number on the back of the Wolf's Tale, along with all the other youth and adult lodge leadership. Remember the Spirit is alive in Kittatinny 5!! Conclave 2006 be there! or be somewhere else (not having as much fun of course).

Kittatinny Inc.

Jason Bingaman
Kitty Inc Chairman

The April and May weekends are just around the corner, at which there will be brand new merchandise. NOAC merchandise will be on sale, as well as the 2005 Jamboree flap set. Although this flap's red bordered counter-part may only be received if you go to the Jamboree. Also, those arrowmen who handed in a participation award for the second year, your pins may be picked up at Kitty Inc. I look forward to seeing you all this April and May.

May I Have Some More Please?

Michael Waldman
Moshakantpeu Pashkschawen
Kitchen Adviser

Absolutely. Yes you can have more fun, spirit and cheerful service, and of course FOOD – GLORIOUS FOOD. Did you know the OA weekend menus are planned months before you even think of registering? How about the coordination of proteins, nutrition and daily essential vitamins?

Well your kitchen clan: Dan, Ron, Paul, Bill, Joe P., Dave, Bear, Sean, Mike and your kitchen chairman JJ Miller. accommodate the menu according to the weekend themes with a lot in mind.

Remember the September Hawaiian pig roast? What a feast for 250 people. Well, OA members, we need your thoughts and suggestions for the April and May weekends. Pass the information onto JJ Miller. We're sure to delight you with some culinary satisfaction. Hey, sign up now for the kitchen team. No experience necessary. Hold it, if you can get up and smell the food and sample Paul's double chocolate chip cookies...you're in. Next time you ask..."may I have some more please", seconds will do. Did somebody think of ... hot sausage and mustard?

Think about the 2006 conclave kitchen staff.

The Importance of Wolf's Tale

Jonathan Teter
Neka Auwen Papabin Achipiquon
Publications Chairman

Every two months, Kittatinny Lodge 5 publishes the Wolf's Tale. This publication provides the membership of the lodge with information, articles, and news on the dealings of the lodge. Communication is vital to the structure and function of the lodge.

As you all know, the lodge is run by the youth. Only those under 21 have voting power. It is crucial that the youth of our lodge take a more active role in communicating. In recent years, the adults of the lodge have had to take on a more active role to ensure that things get done. In the Wolf's Tale, for example, A good bit of this edition's articles came from adult advisors. It is like pulling teeth to get youth articles. A lack of communication only results in separation, division, and isolation within the lodge. So please, take Wolf's Tale into consideration next time you sit at your computer.

It's Brotherhood Time

Greg Portner
Brotherhood Advisor

It seems that we just made our Brotherhood conversion goal for last year's Quality Lodge status. We on the Brotherhood committee thank everyone that sealed their bond by converting.

Well, we now begin all over again at "0". We begin again by calling on every eligible Ordeal brothers to fulfill their promise and convert to Brotherhood. We again need you. You, who have been Ordeal members for at least ten months. You, who have made a commitment to convert when you took your Ordeal.

There will again be many opportunities, three service weekends and summer camp, to seal your bond. But why wait? Come to the first OA weekend, April 22-24, 2005. Spend the weekend having fun and fellowship, performing Cheerful Service, and converting to Brotherhood. Watch for the informational mailings that will be coming to you over the next few weeks.

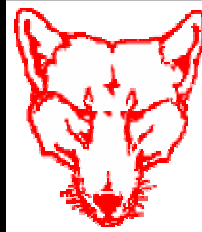

Help move us off of that "0" and help us attain Quality Lodge once again. Convert to Brotherhood.

Vigil Selection Committee Appointed Seeking Worthy Candidates

The 2005 Vigil Selection Committee has been appointed and is now seeking nominations for members worthy of the Vigil Honor.

Alertness to the needs of others is the mark of the Vigil Honor. It calls for an individual with an unusual awareness of the possibilities within each situation. The Vigil Honor is a high mark of distinction and recognition reserved for the Arrowmen who, by reason of exceptional service, personal effort, and unselfish interest, have made distinguished contributions beyond the immediate responsibilities of their position or office to one or more of the following: their lodge, the Order of the Arrow, Scouting, or their Scout camp. Under no circumstances should

Some of you may believe that winter is a dead time for the Order. Well in fact there is a flurry of activity going on right now. We have ceremonies teams to help with Cub Scout crossovers, Eagle ceremonies, and other events. The election teams are visiting troops and making sure we get new, quality members to keep our lodge membership growing. And let's not forget the Executive Board meetings that happen about every month. If your bored and getting cabin fever call one of the committee chairmen who are active now and I'm sure they will be glad to have you help. So remember even though the snow may be falling outside the activity level never falls here at Kittatinny 5.

New Service Weekend Check-in Policies

Josh Nimmerichter
Membership Chairman

This year, there will be changes in the sign-in process throughout the weekend.

On Friday night, the Check-in for current OA members will take place in the ADMIN building. When you arrive at the ADMIN building, you must sign in using the new and improved sign-in/sign-out binder. Once signed in you will receive your wristband. The wristband must be worn at ALL times and must be visible when in the dining hall. You will then check-in with me, Josh Nimmerichter, and I will check you in to camp and you may sign up for your cabin. Please take note of the adult and youth cabins. In a youth cabin, there must be two individuals over 18 years of age (a Scouting adult). In an adult cabin there is to be absolutely no one under eighteen years of age. If, at sometime during the weekend, you decide to change cabins, you MUST move your name on the sheets found at the Admin building.

Check-in for candidates taking their Ordeal will take place in the CUB SCOUT DINING HALL. Candidates taking their Ordeal will sign in for the cabins during the Saturday night cracker-barrel. Candidates belongings will already be in their cabin prior to dinner and at cracker-barrel they will just sign the sheet to let us know where they are.

If you show up late to the weekend (Saturday) you must sign in at the Admin building and you must check in with me or my adviser, Joe Pietruszynski, at the dining hall during the NEXT meal. Check-in procedures will only take place before and immediately after meals (including cracker-barrel). If you must leave sometime during the weekend (INCLUDING SUNDAY MORNING) you must sign out in the sign-in/sign-out binder at the Admin building. The Admin building will not be staffed but the binder will be on the bench outside (just like Summer Camp). If you come back to camp you must re-sign in at the Admin building, but you do NOT need to check-in with me unless you have removed your wristband. Also, at NO point in time may you DRIVE your vehicle in camp without permission from the Chief or with a Parking Permit issued by me during check-in. A friendly reminder to those that do drive in camp - the speed limit is still 5 MPH.

Hopefully these changes will make the weekends more enjoyable for all, especially those of us concerned with safety issues within camp. Please try to follow these guidelines as closely as possible to avoid problems. If you have any questions feel free to contact me via email or on the phone.

"TWELVE CUBED" - OA At The Jamboree

George Shoop
Lodge Adviser

One of the mountaintop experiences of Scouting is the National Jamboree, and I hope each of you will have the chance to attend the 2005 Jamboree at A.P. Hill this summer, either with the Council contingency, your unit, or a day trip. It's not to be missed! Where else can you share fun and adventure with 40,000 people who share the values that make Scouting great? The Stage Shows, Merit Badge Midway, National Exhibits, Brownsea Island, the Action Centers...there's something going on constantly and you're never bored! All of these support the Jamboree's theme: "On My Honor, Timeless Values."

The Order of the Arrow is a key player in all of the activities at the Jamboree, and if you attend, make sure you visit and participate in the OA events. The OA runs four areas within the Jamboree, which are the OA Service Corps, TOAP, OA Shows, and the OA Indian Village. TOAP, the Outdoor Adventure Place hosted by the OA, gives Scouts the opportunity to test their camping and outdoor skills, and view the latest BSA camping equipment. At the OA American Indian Village, Native American-style dance performances and demonstrations are presented in the morning, and in the afternoons, the staff demonstrates and teaches various crafts such as beadwork, porcupine quillwork, and teach Indian games. Scouts can also work on the Indian Lore merit badge. OA lodge ceremonies teams can join the dance circle.

The main OA production at the 2005 Jamboree is "Twelve Cubed". This is the successor to previous OA jamboree productions such as "Odyssey of the Law" (1997), and "Scoutopia" (2001). 12<sup>3</sup> represents an equation for life, a formula for values. It is the value obtained by applying to one's life both the 12 points of the Scout Law and the 3 promises of the Scout Oath: a multiplication, if you will, which has an exponential effect upon that life. The show begins in a laboratory, a lab for building a life. The purpose is explained as "exploring the ingredients and assembling the elements of character, of values". In a world full of people who think stupid thoughts and do stupid things, there is hope...because there is something called character. Thus we search to discover character, which makes a boy whole. Twelve Cubed promises to be the best OA production ever. Each of us in Kittatinny 5 should work to be Twelve Cubed every day.

Now that spring is here, it's time to refocus on all of the fun and friendship that we enjoy here in Kittatinny 5. It's going to be an exciting year, with lots of opportunities for cheerful service. Preparations for Conclave 2006 will be a major priority, and we need everyone's involvement. Your Lodge officers and chairmen have been planning throughout the winter months to make the weekends and programs better than ever, and to achieve Quality Lodge once again. We need each Arrowman to pitch in, now more than ever. Have a great year in the Lodge, and we'll see you at Camp!

Get into Gear!

Roger Mory
Allohakasin Nendauen
Associate Lodge Advisor

The time has come to get into high gear for the camping season. Camp is in need of some "cheerful service" to get everything up and running for the summer. I hope you are ready also! The April and May weekends are a great time to renew old friendships and make some new ones as well. Make sure you have your calendar marked and your forms are turned in. (April 22-24, May 20-22)

Hopefully your unit held an election this year. I encourage you to check with the candidates and make sure they are ready to go. It's always comforting to know that someone is concerned about you and new OA candidates are no different. This is a great opportunity for all those OA Troop Representatives to get into gear as well. To ensure a good experience, encourage OA members of your troop to be at the weekends. Seeing a familiar friendly face during the ordeal makes it a much more meaningful and pleasant experience. Helping a new member get settled in after the ordeal goes a long way toward making sure they come back again. Your troop, camp, and the OA benefit from a successful ordeal so you should do your part to make it as successful as possible.

We are only one year away from holding the conclave at Hawk Mountain. Those of you who have been around a while know how much fun and work is involved. For our new guys, it presents an opportunity not to be missed. We only get to host one or these every 6 to 7 years so make sure you get involved. We need everyone's help, youth and adult, to make this conclave a truly great experience for all. The honor and reputation of Kittatinny 5 is on the line!! Check out the list of committees on the back page and decide where you would like to get involved. Then pick up the phone and give the chairman a call. Our lodge can only be as strong as the commitment of its members so pledge to help make a difference and get involved!

Nominations Open for Awards - Due March 31

FOUNDERS AWARD: The Founder's Award was created to honor and recognize those Arrowmen who have given outstanding service to the lodge. Use this form to nominate any Arrowman you feel is worthy of consideration for the award. Nominations can be submitted by any active lodge member. Please be as specific as possible when recommending an Arrowman. The more complete the information, the better consideration can be given. The Founder's Award Committee will only give consideration to Arrowmen nominated using this procedure.

This award is presented to any worthy member. In order to give due

Supplies Needed for Ceremonial Candles

We need materials for ceremony candles. To be more exact, we are in need of tuna fish or cat food cans. If we don't have cans, we can't have candles. We have wax and 1-side corrugated for 1-2 upcoming runs, but will need more 1-sided corrugated soon, as our primary source has dried up due to a change in our donator's packaging process. If you have any of these supplies, please bring them with you to the April OA Weekend. If bringing cans, please be sure they are thoroughly cleaned.
