With the memory of the Fellowship Feast still in my mind, I am looking forward to the next Lodge events coming up. The service weekends in April and May to get camp ready for the summer, the new Ordeal candidates, and new Brotherhood members sealing their bonds in the Lodge.

I hope that all Committee Chairmen have reached out to their Advisers before the service weekends. We need to communicate to keep our Lodge operating at a high level.

If you haven't signed up to attend Conclave, what are you waiting for? Don't let a weekend of excellent training, fun & games, and good food slip through your hands. Don't be one of the Brothers who says "Boy, why didn't I go when I had the chance!!"

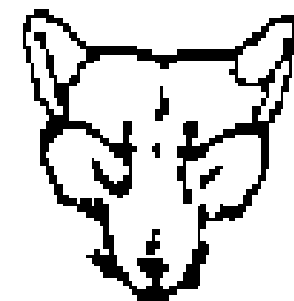

Also please start thinking about attending the 100th Anniversary of NOAC in 2015. You will not want to miss this event.

Yours in Brotherhood,
Dick Zerbe, Lodge Adviser

Brothers,
Now that we can cross "digging out camp" off of our to-do list, it's time to get down to business. Several incredible lodge events are scheduled for the next couple of months. The April weekend has already passed, the May weekend is soon encroaching, Conclave is right around the corner, and we'll be tearing down tents at the September weekend before you know it! NOW is the time to get involved!

On that note, the Communications team is looking for any and all interested arrowmen to help us put together The Wolf's Tale and and help restore vital lines of communication that have disintegrated over the years. Please email me at vaughngolden@comcast.net if interested.

What is NOAC?

During NOAC, Arrowmen will participate in a six-day conference which includes top notch training sessions, cool recreational opportunities, evening shows full of theatrics and special effects, and exciting programs.

The winter is behind us. I hope everyone survived it. It is time to look ahead to our upcoming spring and summer. I know that besides the April and May weekends Kevin would be most appreciative if anyone could help at any other time before summer camp opens as there is much to do.

A big thank you to those who planned and helped to make the banquet the success it was. I think everyone had a good time.

Our membership is down from last year Please check with your troops to see if all your brothers have paid their dues or if anyone may want to reinstate.

Thanks to all brothers for everything they do.

Associate Lodge Adviser

Greetings Brothers!

Summer is just around the corner and the thrill of summer camp is brewing! This past April's service weekend went well. More Ordeal members have decided to seal their bonds within the Order by taking their Brotherhood. I encourage you to follow in your brothers' paths. If you have been an Ordeal for ten or more months and are active in the lodge, then you are eligible to take your Brotherhood at one of our service weekends in May or September. If you are unable to make either of these weekends, then you're in luck because you may also take your Brotherhood while you are enjoying your time at Hawk Mountain's summer camp. For more information about the service weekends, visit our lodge's website at www.kittatinny5.org. If you are interested in taking your Brotherhood during summer camp, reviews will be on Thursday evening at the OA Village. More information will be given at camp. I look forward to seeing many Ordeal members achieve their Brotherhood in the following months!

Yours in Service,
Tony Stianchie

Brothers,

Now that the harsh winter is over, I am happy to look forward to the April, May and September service weekends. These weekends are a chance to meet the people in your lodge and to get more involved with the OA.

My adviser, William Kimmel, and I have some great ideas to make these weekends really fun. In case anyone missed it, the theme from April weekend is "Olympic Games that didn't make it". It looks like May weekend will be "Kittatinny 5 Goes to the Ball Park" so don't forget your hats or jerseys! (Don't worry, they don't have to be baseball related. Any sport works). We are still tossing around some fun ideas for September weekend, so if you have an idea, like "House Kittatinny" for a Game of Thrones theme or something, feel free to contact either of us. There's no such thing as a bad suggestion here.

On that note, anyone who likes to work behind the scenes should really consider helping us out during the weekends. The more help, the better!

Yours in Brotherhood,
Alexander Smith
